A vocational education sector critical to Aotearoa's success

Tui tui tangata, tui tui korowai

Weaving together our people and resources like a fine cloak to create a thriving Weaving together our party work our learner and the wider economy.

Relevant to the changing needs of employers.

Honouring Te Tiriti

Tertiary Education Organisations

In through NZOA

Whakapono | Trust

Delivers to the unique needs of all learners, this includes Māori, Pacific Peoples disabled learners and their whānau.

> Flourishing whānau and economy in Aotearoa.

Government enabling system change:

The ability to work and learn flexibly.

Regional Skills Leadership Groups

Regional Skins Leavership Groups Identify and support better ways of meeting future skills and workforce

.....

Honouring Te Tiriti

Tertiary Education Organisations

How we work together to created national network How we work together to create an integrated national network of vocational educations an integrated national network of high-quality vocational education

Poule recommendations on how tertiar educations respond better to the needs of Maori approach through mission. Tertiary Education Commis

Workforce Development Councils Workforce Development Counc Norkforce Development Counc Give industry greater leadership and Give industry greater leadership ad edu Give industry Breater readership and educational education influence across vocational education influence across vocational educa influence across vocational education and training. Help to shape the vocational education curriculum.

Learners are prepared for the changing needs of the workforce and society.

Kaitiakitanga | Shared guardianship Kaitiakitanga I Shared guardianshik Kaitiakitanga I Service to others Manaakitanga I Trust

Whakapono I nust Kotahitanga | Collaboration